TERMS and CONDITIONS, including CANCELLATION POLICY and REFUND POLICY

- Deadlines: Registration and payment must be received by the PRIMER-e office no later than 1st February 2024. Please use one form per person. Contact PRIMER-e directly at primer@primer-e.com if you have any questions.
- Payment information: Registrants will be invoiced directly upon receipt by the PRIMER-e office of a completed registration form. All payments are to be made in £GBP. Payment options are detailed on the invoice and include:
  - by Credit/Debit Card;
  - by Direct Electronic Bank Transfer; or
  - by formal Purchase Order.
- New Zealand Residents: will need to pay 15% Goods-and-Services Tax (GST), which will be applied at invoice.
- Cancellation and Refund policy: The course organisers should be notified of cancellations in writing. If cancellation occurs before 1 February 2024, the total course fee will be refunded, less any associated bank fees and administration costs. If you cancel after the deadline stated above, you may send a substitute person. Please notify the PRIMER-e office and provide us with the appropriate registration details for the substitute at the time of cancellation. In the absence of a substitute, we will still refund the payment (less administration costs) if we succeed in filling your course place. "No shows" are non-refundable and are liable for the full registration costs. In the unlikely event of a course cancellation, PRIMER-e will refund registration fees in full, but shall not refund any additional associated costs, expenses, or losses incurred by participants.

By submitting this registration form, I acknowledge that I commit myself to the payment of the full course fee (+ any associated software costs, if requested), as invoiced. I have taken notice of the Terms and Conditions, including the Cancellation and Refund policy, as articulated above.
